Costa Mesa City Hall to be a Vote Center starting Saturday, Nov. 1

Beginning Saturday, Nov. 1, Costa Mesa City Hall will become the second Vote Center in the city for the Nov. 4 Special Election. The Vote Centers will remain open until the polls close at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 4.

Residents can drop off their ballots in the City Hall parking lot or vote in person in the Community Room. City Hall's address is 77 Fair Drive.

The first Vote Center opened Oct. 25 at the Costa Mesa Senior Center, located at 695 W 19th St. That Vote Center will also remain open until the polls close of Tuesday, Nov. 4.

Voters have four options for voting in the Special Election:

1. Mail your ballot by Election Day (no postage needed)
2. Use a secure ballot drop box
3. Drop off your ballot at any OC Vote Center
4. Vote in person at any OC Vote Center
