A Midsummer Night's Dream

An enchanting comedy complete with mischief, magic and the world's most popular pastime, falling in love.

By William Shakespeare / Directed by Kevin Slay

With a royal wedding near, four lovers flee into a dark, eerie forest. There they become pawns in the impassioned battle between Oberon and Titania, the king and queen of the fairies. Taking place in mythical Athens and an enchanted forest, Shakespeare's most popular comedy is about the world's most popular pastime, falling in love. But as Puck knows, falling in love can make fools of us all. | Suitable for teens and older
