Segerstrom Center for the Arts and Anika's Pink Closet are pleased to announce a clothing drive that will take place during the run of the Tony Award®-winning Broadway musical Rodgers + Hammerstein's CINDERELLA from April 19 – May 1. Guests are encouraged to bring gently used clothing to the theater where the team from Anika's Pink Closet will be on hand to collect the generous donations. These donated items will be distributed to foster homes and child abuse prevention centers throughout Orange County. All clothing items will be gratefully accepted, however girls and children's clothing are needed in particular. Those who donate will receive a small token of appreciation for their support of Anika's Pink Closet (while supplies last!). On opening night, Anika and her mom will be on-site to help collect items.
