

Judge removes Monday court hearing regarding temporary restraining order from calendar

In light of the federal government filing a notice with the court that it no longer plans to place COVID-19 infected Diamond Princess passengers at Fairview, the Honorable U.S. District Judge Josephine Staton has removed a hearing on the matter that was scheduled for Monday March 2 at 2 p.m.

The City will notify the public if there are any other legal proceedings regarding this case.