Parks and Recreation Commissioners get an update on master plan for open space in city

On Wednesday March 15, the Costa Mesa Parks and Recreation Commission was given an update on the city’s proposed Open Space Master Plan of Parks and Recreation.

The plan considers the following:

- Purpose and Process
- Existing Recreation Resources
- Needs Assessment
- Facility Recommendations
- Core Services and Pricing

To see the full report, click here for the presentation.